

Pigeon

FULL BIOGRAPHY

Pigeon, otherwise known as Luke McIlreavy, is a DJ/Producer from Ballymoney, Northern Ireland. Being involved in the scene at a young age, Pigeon cut his teeth at Irish super club Lush!, DJ'ing to thousands of punters each week. Primarily a tech-house DJ, Pigeon developed a multi-genre style through his weekly residency at Lush! & Kelly's Complex Portrush, mixing house, R'n'B, pop, and more seamlessly through his sets. It was this trademark style that landed him gigs at numerous prestigious summer festivals, parties, and events far afield in Spain and China.

In Northern Ireland Pigeon is a well-recognised name, having DJ'd throughout the country at venues such as Filthy's Belfast, Halo Ballycastle, and MTV festival slots in Derry/Londonderry, to holding residencies in The Anchor Complex Portrush, Time Cooktown, and a regular at Origin Ballymena, Amuse Limavady, and The Ramore Complex, Portrush to name a few.

A hardworking, humble DJ with his feet firmly planted on the ground, Pigeon has been making positive moves in the scene this year. Expect to hear him on a dance floor near you soon, as 2022 looks set to bring even bigger things for Pigeon, with his notoriety rising in the industry.
